Laundry popping up for rural residents

Help will soon be at hand for rural residents who are struggling to perform basic household chores due to the lack of water.

While water restrictions for residents within the town boundaries mean they have to cut back on water use, for rural residents the only option as the tanks run dry is to buy water. This has become an expensive option and long waiting lists have left some households high and dry.

In an effort to ease the burden for those who are already struggling with the demands of life on the land, the VRA is opening a pop-up laundry this weekend to allow rural residents to do their washing.

Three twin tub washing machines will be available at the VRA shed in Yarrowanda St on Sunday, September 29th from 10 am until 4pm.

The VRA are providing this free service for rural residents who may have no other option. Water for the machines will come from a well which has recently been cleaned out by VRA members.

If you want to make use of this service, please phone Anne Thrift on 6779 1273 to book a spot. You will need to supply your own washing powder and the VRA will supply tea, coffee and scones while you wait.

Little Lamb at School

Last week Black Mountain Public School had a very special visitor. Miss Lindeman brought her pet lamb into school to show the students the responsibilities of looking after a pet.

The K-2 students named her Nala and the students learnt to mix her bottled milk, feed her, make sure she was safe in the playground and had grass to eat.

Nala learned about school routines and demonstrated excellent lining up skills during her visit. She enjoyed receiving lots of loving affection from all the students while at school.

Black Mountain Public School would like to wish all students and their families a wonderful, well-deserved holiday. Student return to school on Monday, 14th October 2019.

Savannah set to shine at Schools Spectacular

The Schools Spectacular has been hailed as the largest amateur variety act in the world, and Guyra Central School year 12 student Savannah Roberts is being heralded as one of this year's biggest stars.

Savannah was named among the 2019 array of Featured Artists for the School Spectacular which will take place at QUDOS Bank Arena in Sydney's Olympic Park.

The theme for the 2019 Schools Spectacular is STARS and the featured performers will shine brightly in a galaxy of more than 5500 stars drawn from public schools across NSW.

Savannah is extremely excited to be once again part of School Spectacular and the array of amazing talent and has already taken part in one of her contemporary ensemble rehearsals.

"It has been really good to re-connect with other students that I have met throughout School Spectacular and the theme, choreography, music and costumes will be amazing this year," Savannah said.

In coming months, Savannah and the thousands of other stars will be dedicated to rehearsals and mustering their energy and passions to create a world-class performance in the best traditions of Schools Spectacular.

Creative Director, Sonja Sjolander believes it is that youthful exuberance, amazing talent and passion for performance that has made a must-see on the annual arts calendar and Australia's longest running variety show.

"Our students love to be a part of Schools Spectacular and audiences just love their performances," Ms Sjonlander said. "It's a joy to see their faces light up with pride and achievement as they perform."

As well as the local featured performers the Schools Spectacular will again showcases the talents of students from across NSW, including 40 featured performers, an incredible 100-piece symphony orchestra, stage band, 2700-voice choir, 2300 amazing dancers, the D'Arts Ensemble disability program, the Aboriginal Dance Company, puppets and an indispensable behind-the-scenes team.

Savannah Roberts will be one of the featured artists

Four performances of the Schools Spectacular will be staged at QUDOS Bank Arena on Friday, 22nd (11am, 7.30pm) and Saturday, 23rd (1pm, 7.30pm) November 2019 and will later be broadcast across Australia on 7 networks.

Tickets, available through Ticketek, are already selling fast so now is the time to secure your preferred seats.

Police target drink driving

“Drink driving – you will get caught” was the message delivered by police across the New England Police District over the weekend.

New England Police District Crime Manager, Detective Inspector Ann Joy said that drink and drug driving is a menace on our roads.

“Drink driving is the cause of a range of consequences including loss of licence, unemployment, huge fines and at worst injury and death to the driver, their passenger or innocent motorists,” Detective Inspector Joy said. “There is no legitimate or acceptable reason for residents to drink and drive and absolutely no reason to be unaware of the consequences.”

Three drivers were charged with offences over the past weekend including a 49 year old driver who recorded a blood alcohol reading above the legal limit after his vehicle was stopped in Kentucky Street, Armidale. His licence was immediately suspended and he has been charged with Drive with middle range PCA. A 24 year old male was charged with Drive with low range PCA and had his licence immediately suspended after being stopped in Froude St Inverell and a 21 year old male driver has been charged with Drive with middle range PCA after emergency services were called to a crash on Meredith Road Armidale.

A 33 year old male is expected to be charged after the vehicle he was driving was involved in a crash in Malpas Street Guyra in the early hours of Sunday morning. The male was conveyed to Armidale Hospital for treatment to his injuries.

Police are also investigating the circumstances surrounding a crash on Richardson Avenue Armidale where a single vehicle collided with a tree. The occupant/s of the vehicle fled the scene prior to police arrival.

During operations over the weekend more than eighty motorists were spoken to by police.

Holiday Art'skool fun

Art'skool with Jo Duck is coming to Guyra in the October school holidays to hold some fun, creative art workshops.

Kids can choose from four separate workshops held over the two Tuesday mornings from 10 am to 12 noon, and afternoon sessions from 1 pm to 3 pm.

Children will learn some cool cartooning tricks and create a personalised cartoon of themselves. They will draw up and paint a colourful mystery poster for their rooms. There's a mad Halloween rock-painting session and Halloween cut-outs to paint... drawing tips and tricks throughout.

Each workshop runs for two hours, and is jam packed with activity. PLUS, Jo will be bringing a special guest...the Art'skool mascot, Arty-Farty. He's there to annoy her and take sides with the kids...and he adds a little craziness to the days' events.

Workshops will be held at the Church of England Hall and the cost is $30 per child. Bookings are essential and you can book in by phone or text 0476 073 932 or inbox the Art'skool Facebook page.

Guyra Sheep & Lamb Sale

September 18th - There was an increased penning of 3660 sheep and 2470 lambs as seasonal conditions worsen. There were very few well finished crossbred lambs, while plain condition light weight Merino lambs were well supplied. A highlight was a run of very well finished supplementary fed Merino lambs. The usual buyers were in attendance and there were a few restockers participating. Market trends through the few well finished crossbred lambs were cheaper, upwards of $10/head. The couple of pens of new season lambs saw greater declines. Light weight Merino lambs to restockers sold to cheaper trends, with the plainest lines attracting small interest. The well finished Merino lambs also sold to a cheaper trend. Plain condition light weight Merino sheep made up the bulk of the sheep offering.

The majority of those sheep had been recently shorn. There were very few sheep suitable to processors. There were a couple of confident restockers operating. Market trends were cheaper throughout, with the plain sheep market underpinned by those restocker orders

Armidale Cattle Sale

September 19th - There was a small decrease in numbers this week. Yearlings and cows made up the bulk of the offering. There was a fair supply of young calves, taken off cows due to the seasonal conditions. The quality of the offering showed great variation, as did the condition.

Despite the poor season there were some well finished cattle presented. There was increased buyer competition, both from restockers and processors. The better calves attracted strong competition when sold on a live weight basis.

The very light weight calves sold on a $/head basis, made as little as $16/head. Vealers to restockers saw a market trend that was firm on the previous sale. Light weight yearling steers to restockers sold to cheaper trends with most falling into the plain quality and condition category.

The limited supply of medium weights remained firm. Light weight yearling heifers to restockers also sold to cheaper trends, despite the extra competition. Again, both quality and condition was generally plain. The few well finished medium and heavy weight heifers attracted strong processor demand.

There were insufficient grown steers or well finished grown heifers to quote. Plain quality and condition grown heifers attracted restocker interest. Breed and quality accounted for a large variation in price, with the younger and larger framed heifers attracting strong premiums over the smaller and older lots.

There was a good supply of light and medium weight cows at the lower end of condition scores. The plainest cows remained firm. Some of the better 2 score cows sold on a firm to dearer trend. Well finished cows remained firm. A very strong bull market saw heavy weights sell to a dearer trend with increased processor competition.

Weekly Wool Sales

September 20th - There was a sense of nervousness on the showfloor early this week after the record rise in the market last week. Would the size of that rise be too much and too quick to sustain? Would the Chinese enquiry filtering back into the market over the last 2 week's continue? Thankfully it did and the result was one that all participants had wanted to see. Last week's rise was sustained and was backed up by some new enquiry from Chinese mills. There was gains across all microns and types this week. It would be great to see the extremes in the market since the July recess be replaced with some stability and a steady rise in the market going forward. The concerns that drove the market down around tariffs, trade and the state of the Chinese and world economies still remain. The steady rise in enquiry over the last few weeks however is encouraging. As yet we have not seen much of the Passed in or Withdrawn wool from previous weeks filtering back into the market.

There continues to be very strong and growing demand for Non-Mulesed wool. Even during the considerable falls in the market over the last few months, lots declared as NM have consistently received prices considerably higher than the rest of the market. I encourage all growers to complete the NWD, but particularly those that have mobs of sheep that are non-mulesed.

Men's Bowls

There is not much to report on this week, until the selectors meet and select the antagonists for the 2019/2020 Club Championship programme.

The weekend saw only one game of Bowls played and that was a Quarter Final of the Major/Minor Pairs.

Steven Sole and Robert Walls played Ian Jacobs and Mallie Walls.

Ian and Mallie held a commanding lead and seemed to have Steven and Robert's measure leading 13 shots to 3 shots by end 10. But at this stage the wheel seemingly fell off and Steven and Robert picked up their game and reeled off 8 ends in a row as a result they took the lead by end 16 and by end 16 held a 6 shot advantage. Ian and Mallie regrouped and by end 20 had drawn even, but Steven and Robert went on to win 4 out of the final 5 ends and went on to take victory 23 shots to 20 shots over 25 ends.

Ian and Mallie could only look back and think that this was the game that slipped away.

Bowlers you are invited to read the rules set down for the marking of a Handicap Singles game. These rules were agreed upon at the Annual Bowls Meeting. Match Committee.

The meeting will be held at the Guyra Hotel at 4pm on Sunday, September 29th.

1969 - A victory to remember

On September 28th it will be 50 years since the Guyra Rugby League team won the 1969 Group 5 grand-final against Warialda. It is a victory that remains in the minds of those who witnessed it as one of Guyra's greatest sporting moments.

It was the first time that Guyra had won an A Grade Group 5 premiership and it was also the first time that the grand final was played in the town. An estimated crowd of 4500 attended the game and the following week the Guyra Guardian dedicated both its front and back pages to the victory. Under the headline "THEY WERE MUCH TOO GOOD" the report opened with the following words.

'Guyra had a magnificent triumph on Sunday in taking out the Group Five Major Premiership. Never in memory has a grand-final been won in such convincing manner.'

The captain of that team Barry Wood says that he can remember the game like it was yesterday.

"Not only can I remember the grand final game from 1969, I can also remember the last game of the season on our ground when we had to beat Moree to become minor premiers," Barry said. "If we lost and Warialda won we would have finished second.

"There was a big crowd longing for us to win and with only about 10 minutes to go someone shouted 'Woods'y, Warialda lost' and even though we were leading 10 nil at the time it was a relief."

The following week, again in front of a big crowd, Guyra played Warialda at home to see which team would make it through to the grand final and to the delight of players and fans it was Guyra who made it through. Warialda beat Glen Innes in the final the following week setting up a decider between Guyra and Warialda.

"We knew it was Warialda's highly respected player coach Jim Payne's last game and his team would love to see him finish his playing days with another grand final victory," Barry said. "On the day of the grand final, it was very hot which favoured our opponents, but on a day that will always remain with everyone who played that day, we got the win."

"I cannot remember how many people watched the game, but as they say it was packed out," he said. "The fans were fantastic and the atmosphere that evening in both public houses and the Bowling Club was a night to remember for everyone involved."

"I would like to add that I have great respect for the players and committee who gave me so much support, The players never complained about anything, be it training on very cold evenings or training three nights a week when I thought it necessary."

For the record Guyra won 20 to 7 with Gary Dowdell scoring three tries, and Barry Woods one try. Ron Starr kicked three goals and one field goal and was named the most outstanding player on the day.

Looking back - player's perspective on the season

No matter what the standard of football, the thrill of being in a winning Grand Final Team is something very special.

1969 was no exception. Right from the very first game of the season the anticipation of supporters created an excitement that was infectious, and as the season progressed with a winning team, more and more supporters came on board.

The players then felt a responsibility to perform well. Reg

Campbell's regular column in the "Guyra Guardian" was also another motivator.

The team of 69's success was due to both coincidence and timing. Our team was supported by an extremely strong and respected committee led by president Phil Starr and secretary George McCanna.

The team included a group of five or six older players who had played in losing teams with Guyra for a few years, another five or six outstanding young players who had come straight out of juniors into A Grade, and in the middle of all this were four paid players from the UK who had the ability and enthusiasm to blend us all together and create a winning team.

Barry Wood our English Coach was absolutely fanatical on physical training and we reached a level of fitness we had never experienced before. The UK connection spent hours on bar stools over a few beers working out each player's individual talents to create a team that worked together, as well as following other newspaper reports on opposition teams.

As we look back on that great year we acknowledge all of the supporters and especially the committee that gave us the opportunities to play and memories to savour.

Soccer Club Presentation Day

Guyra United's junior and senior teams combined for their presentations on Saturday

The Guyra United Soccer Club held their Presentation Day on Saturday at the Guyra Recreation Fields. With great weather and a relaxed atmosphere our Junior and Senior players, coaches and their families came together to enjoy a BBQ lunch and presentation to celebrate the 2019 season.

GUSC President Adam Brennan opened the proceedings with a review of the season. The GUSC fielded 12 Junior teams this year with 123 players across the 6 – 16 age divisions. The Club was also represented by 3 Senior teams in 1st, 2nd and 3rd Grade. Unfortunately this year none of our Guyra teams made it to the Grand Final however the 14A Ghosts, 12B Spirits and the 1st and 2nd Grade teams made it through to the semi-finals. Two of our junior teams, the 12B Spirits and the Under 9 Vipers, also proudly represented the Club at the Jack Vallance Junior Memorial Carnival in Armidale.

Without our volunteer Coaches the Club would not be able to field these teams so thank you to the following:

Under 6 Spooks Steve Ahern, Under 7 Smarties

Mitchell Hope, Under 7 Jellybeans Trudi Brown, Under 8 Skittles Kristy Campion, Under 8 Jaffas Cordy Lloyd, Under 9 Vipers Briana Merritt, Under 9 Jets Jess Brennan and Scott McFarlane, Under 10 Cobras Michael Colvin, 12B Spirits Paul and Jo Dullaway, 14B Lil Caspers Craig Lockyer, 14A Ghosts Hayden Raper and 16A Jnr Caspers Adam Brennan, 3rd Grade Adam Mendes, 2nd Grade Blake Handebo, and 1st Grade Corby Kliendienst.

This year the Club purchased new jerseys for all 15 teams with the same strip now displayed across all Junior and Senior divisions. This would not have been possible without sponsorship from the following: Major sponsor Royal Hotel Guyra, DRT Logistics, Simpson's Earthmoving, SA & RA Tibbs, Highland Petfood, Tuckeroo Macadamias, Fourways Service Centre, Lenehan Contracting, Rockvale Farms, Sutto's Shears and Tony Looker. Thank you also to Chris Yorke from CJ's Coffee Co. for supporting the Club through his coffee sales at the home games.
