Year 6 pass the test

Congratulations to all of the St Mary of the Angels Year 6 students on their wonderful results in the recent Armidale Diocesan Year 6 Religious Education Test. The Year 6 cohort performed higher than the CSO average and all of the students received such pleasing results, which is a great credit to the students' preparation and knowledge over the primary years in Religious Education. Well done Year 6 for your exceptional work!

NAB to shut up shop in October

Guyra will be reduced to just one banking service in October, with the National Australia Bank preparing to close its doors for good. It follows the closure of Westpac in 2015 and the Commonwealth Bank in 2018. Customers were informed of the decision by letter which informed them that the branch will close on October 7th.

The bank has gradually reduced services in the community over recent years. In 2016 they went from a five day service to opening only three days a week. Their hours were further reduced last year to half days. NAB is also closing its branch in Uralla.

NAB Retail Customer Executive, Wesley Tronson has attributed the closure to a move by customers to online banking.

"Increasingly customers are banking digitally, with more than 93% of customer interactions now taking place over the phone, by video or online," Mr Tronson said. "As more and more customers are choosing to bank online, we're investing in improving our digital platform to make it easier and faster.

"While our physical branch presence in Guyra and Uralla will no longer be there, we will still be there for our customers – just in different ways."

"Over the past few years, fewer customers are coming into branches to do their banking and foot traffic has lessened, which has been accelerated by COVID. More than 50% of our customers in Guyra and Uralla have only visited these branches once in the last year and 70% of customers are also using other branches in the region such as Armidale.

NAIDOC 2021 - Heal Country

NAIDOC Week celebrations took place across the nation from July 4th to July 11th. The NAIDOC 2021 theme was 'Heal Country!' – calling for all of us to continue to seek greater protections for our lands, our waters, our sacred sites and our cultural heritage from exploitation, desecration, and destruction.

It was a chance to embrace First Nations' cultural knowledge and understanding of Country as part of Australia's national heritage and equally respect the culture and values of Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islanders as they do the cultures and values of all Australians.

Children and staff at the Guyra Preschool and Long Day Care Centre embraced the theme, with a scaled down celebration due to COVID 19. Abiding by the current rules and regulations in place did not stop them delving local Aboriginal history and culture with Mrs Nellie Blair.

During circle time, Mrs Blair talked to the children about what tools they used in past times to hunt and gather food and discussed comparisons about how people in the past didn't have access to the shops and supplies we have today. Mrs Blair also spoke to the children about the topic "Heal Country".

The children also engaged in listening to a story by Gregg Dreise who spoke about the importance of country and how grateful we are for what it provides us.

“In support of this, last week we confirmed that as part of a $100 million investment this year in our branch network, the nearby Armidale branch will be undergoing a refurbishment. Once completed, this multi-million dollar Regional Banking Hub will provide an enhanced level of service for our Retail, Business and Agri Business customers, all in the one centralised location.”

Mr Tronson said that the branch team will be working with customers over the coming months until they close, talking with them about the various banking alternatives available. These include the recently renewed 10-year partnership with Australia Post and the Bank@post service as well as connecting with mobile bankers, home lending specialists or business bankers in person or for phone or video appointments.

“Our Agri and regional customers will continue to be supported by our specialist bankers, who visit customers on their farms and at businesses to support with their banking needs. Customers can also continue to make deposits and withdrawals at the local Australia Post in Guyra or Uralla.”

“Importantly, there will be no job losses. Over the coming weeks we will be working with our colleagues from this branch on opportunities for them to continue to support customers either through other branches or across phone and digital channels.”

Disappointed, sad and angry

President of the Guyra and District Chamber of Commerce Steve Mephram said that it is disappointing for any small town to lose services.

“This will impact not only businesses in town, but will also have an impact for pensioners and older people in our community,” Steve said.

“Business owners will struggle because there are some things you can’t do online and it means they may have to travel to Armidale to pick up cash and do their banking. The closure adds another level of inconvenience for everyone.”

Tania Lennon from Dasha’s Hardware said that it she is disappointed to lose another thing in our town.

As a business customer, she uses the branch every day they are open to deposit takings and to get change.

“Small business and small towns shouldn’t have to bear the brunt of big business closures,” Tania said. “I will be sad to see them leave because it will impact our business. I am also sad for the oldies who can’t use online banking and I will be sad to see another empty building in our main street.

Tania also said that she is considering her options for future banking services and is not sure what they will do. Whatever the future holds she believes it will not be the same.

“You can’t replace the service you get from your local branch and being able to talk face to face with someone you know and who knows your business.”

Another NAB customer who is not happy with the decision is Anne Thrift from CT Electric. She said that she is angry at the decision, and will be moving all their accounts to Regional Australia Bank.

“It would be too hard for us to operate without having a local branch because we go in most days to do our banking,” Anne said. “I am sad for the girls who work there because they are always so helpful and I am really angry to see another big business close its doors in our town.”

Still time to nominate for GCS Hall of Fame

Nominations are still open for the next inductee into the Guyra Central School Hall of Fame. Many students who have attended Guyra Central School have gone on to achieve outstanding success in their chosen careers.

The achievements of past students are recognised and celebrated through the Hall of Fame award. The school is extremely proud of their past students and believe that they serve as inspiration for students currently studying at our school.

If you are aware of a former student of Guyra Central

Join us for coffee, cake and chat

The Hub at Guyra's first Coffee, Cake and Chat morning was very successful. A number of providers came to Guyra especially to see our community and a good number of local community members were present.

They will be holding a second session on Wednesday July 21st, commencing at 11am. A number of services who provide support locally from The Hub premises will be present. Madan from Care Agents will be here providing support for all NDIS enquiries and plan management. Drought Recovery worker Nigel from Rural Family Support will be in attendance, supporting farmers, rural workers and businesses.

Also present will be Susan from New England Family Support. They work to support families individually as well as run an assortment of programs to assist families in meeting their goals.

1. Family capacity building,
2. Gaining further parenting skills,
3. Improving self esteem,
4. Providing information, advice, and referral to a range of specialist services,
5. Obtaining information on education, drug, alcohol or legal issues and
6. Improving social connections.

The Hub has disability facilities available and want to invite all of the community to see the new facilities. They are hopeful of attracting other service providers on the day and look forward to discussing all the communities needs and wants.

COVID19 restrictions are in place to keep our community SAFE.

Have Your Say.....

Keep up the good work

I would like to acknowledge Guyra Preschool and Long Day Care Centre for their participation and engagement in recent Reconciliation Week and now NAIDOC Week.

Everyone is keen to learn about Aboriginal culture and history. I have enjoyed working and presenting activities to a group of community wise people.

You deserve a gold medal! Keep up the good work.

Business Spotlight - Khammo

What is the name and nature of your business?

Khammo – is a hunting, ammo, clothing, and fishing shop. If you love getting outside we will definitely have something for you. Some of the brands we have are Ringers Western, Spika, Vortex, Leatherman, Led Lenser, Profishent tackle, Rapala, Oliver and Mongrel work boots, and Jewellery from Meelah Collections. Plus, many more. There is something for everyone!

We have now started selling ammunition and powder, Weatherby, Sako, Hornady, Federal, Remington, Focchi – so have a great range available now. Whether you need reloading or factory ammo, we have you covered. If we don't have it, we will source it for you.

How long have you operated this business?

We started Khammo in 2017 and the business has grown since then. If you are a local or a traveler just passing through town, it is worth a look. The plumbing shop is still as normal.

How many staff do you employ?

Because the Khammo store is in the same building as Hammond Plumbing, we all help in each business. We currently employ 6 people.

What is the best/worst thing about owning your own business?

Starting this shop has been extremely exciting, as this is an interest we have in the family for many years. We love meeting new people that come to town and explore the shops in the area. We do put a lot of hours into each business and at times this can be challenging.

How have things changed since you started?

Since starting in 2017, we thought we would just see how selling gun safes and a few clothing items would go. Then we kept on getting asked about more and more things. We have grown the store as we felt there was a call for this type of store to be in the area. We definitely have more than just gun safes here now.

What effects have challenges such as the coronavirus had for your business?

As with most retail businesses, we have been impacted by the coronavirus. We have seen not so many people coming in the door. And like everyone else, we have had to adapt to the changing world now and hopefully one day things will get back to normal.

I have started a website for anyone wanting to check out what we have online: www.khammo.com.au

How do you spread the word about your business to attract customers/visitors?

I rely a lot on social media, and this gets the word out really well. We have weekly specials and advertise these on Facebook and Instagram. Facebook/khammo - instagram #khammohunting

Are there any interesting or amusing things that have happened?

We do hear a lot of good stories but nothing I can share here. Sworn to secrecy ??

Do you get good feedback from your customers?

Yes all the time, we get good feedback. People love the shop.

Any advice for people starting out in business?

Just go for it!

Final thoughts?

We would like to thank everyone's support thus far; it is greatly appreciated. All local businesses need the support and by doing this we become a stronger town together.

Big Picture students prepare for exhibitions

Quin Ashman has been learning how to use an overlocker to finish seams and create an elastic waistband. These techniques were used to construct a simple skirt, one with contrast fabric and a gathered skirt. During her exhibition Quin demonstrated her new skills by sewing a seam and finishing it professionally with an overlocker. After her exhibition Quin kindly donated her samples to Mrs Mitchell's Kindergarten class.

Wyatt McGinty has been learning how to insert a zip and use applique as a decorating feature. These techniques were used to construct a pocket pillow, decorated with an applique owl sewn onto the pocket of the pillow.

Esther donating her sample skirts to Early Stage | Rainbow

Well done to these students on their final projects.

Students in Stage 2 Rose and Crimson would like to thank Coles Armidale for donating the donuts for the Stage 2 Thalgarrah excursion fundraiser.

Thank you to all our students, teachers and staff who purchased donuts! All money raised is going towards the Stage 2 Thalgarrah excursion.

Rural Market Reports

Guyra Sheep & Lamb Sale

July 7th - There was a total yarding of 4010. Numbers were reduced with a very small penning of 470 sheep and 3540 lambs.

The quality of the lambs was very good, carrying plenty of weight and condition. There were a few plainer quality lots and light weight Merinos. All the regular buyers were in attendance.

Market trends were generally dearer than the previous sale, the exception being a few plainer quality crossbreds to restockers. There was limited competition on those lambs with a limited supply available.

Well finished trade weights up to 24kg were $4 to $10/head dearer. The heavy and extra heavy weight lambs saw trends from $4 to $11/head dearer with the extra heavy weights improving in quality and carrying more weight.

It was a very mixed quality penning of sheep, all in small lots. Competition was strong with market trends dearer for the most part and there was some skin related price change.

Armidale Cattle Sale

July 8th - Numbers increased sharply to 800 head with the commencement of a new financial year. Tradition continued with an influx of vealers, held over to July. Cows were well supplied and there was representation in most other categories.

The quality and condition of the offering was mixed. Some of the young cattle showing the effects of Winter. The same processors operated and there was very strong restocker activity. Demand was very high through the young cattle resulting in dearer trends. Vealer steers to restock experienced significant improvement in all weight classes. That trend carried into the heifer portion also.

Strong feedlot demand saw heavy weight yearling steers sell very well, however there was nothing from the previous sale to make a market comparison. Heavy heifer yearlings followed a similar trend. High processor demand for well finished heavy cattle saw grown steers post strong gains.

Well finished grown heifers attracted both feedlot and processor competition to sell much dearer. A very good quality penning of heavy weight cows met keen demand to sell to a dearer trend of as much as 14c/kg. Heavy weight bulls were up to 10c/kg dearer.

Weekly Wool Sales

July 10th - The first sale of the new season got off to a nervous start with a continuation of last week's losses occurring. The Northern region indicator fell 15 cents with the 18 micron indicator recording the largest fall.

By the second day of sales the three day drop in the market was enough to spark buyer interest with prices finishing the day slightly dearer. This trend continued on Thursday in the Southern region with the market gaining further ground leaving the Eastern market indicator down 3 cents for the week.

44,819 bales were sold nationally with a passed in rate of 12.6%. Major buyers included Techwool, Tianyu and PJ Morris. The first two weeks of the new seasons offering is far greater in size than last season, continuing the trend seen over the past 4-5 months.

Another 50,000 plus bale national offering is expected next week before auctions head into the annual three week recess. Interestingly and in a positive sign for the broader Merino types forward market prices focused on the 21 micron indicator this week. Contracts changed hands at a premium to this week's physical close as far out as January 2022

Men's Bowls

There were two Club Championship games contested over the weekend: In club pairs Colin Stanley and Corby Kliendienst played Scott Campbell and Boyd Stanley. Boyd and Scott took command of this encounter early and seemed to have it well in hand, however Colin's partner fell ill and had to withdraw, as a result the game was finished at end 12. Scott and Boyd were successful in this game.

The other game was a Minor Singles game played between John Jackson and Barry Walls, both players found the going hard with the green very slow, but as the game wore on the green quickened up and with both players getting used to the change so did the game change. Barry forged ahead leaving John floundering and try as he might nothing seemed to click. Barry moved into the next round with a clear win over 24 ends.

Club Championship games set down for this weekend:

Sunday July 18th start: 12.00pm. Starter and Umpire: David Wilcox.

Major Singles: John McIlwain to play Dan Kennedy marker Robert Walls

Final Minor Singles: Barry Campbell to play Barry Walls marker David Wilcox.

Final Club Pairs: Roger Cox and Evan Sole to play Scott Campbell and Boyd Stanley.

Major/Minor Pairs: Mallie Walls and Logan Beachey to play Colin Stanley and Greg Mitchell.

Bowlers please be aware of the Covid 19 rules that apply to the Bowling Club inside and out. Good Bowling.

Midweek Golf

Finally we have the results for the midweek – I keep forgetting to do the put them in the paper.

Guyra Bowling & Recreation Club sponsor the team and individual winners and runners up. Ian and Leonie Taylor sponsor the half time comp winners.

Overall winners for 2020 – 2021 were Sultans of Swing. Congratulations to the team with an overall score of 1409.

Runners up went to Pitch Purfects with 1378.

We are also awarding prizes to the first half of the comp and the second half of the comp. First half winners went to Full House and second half to No Shankers.

Individual Winner went to Lisa Ellis. Runner up went to Dan Lennon. Congratulations to you both. Great to see some new names on the winners list.

The Individual scores were very close and Darren Lennon, Matt McFarlane, Luke Brazier, Deb Heffernan and Neil Paine only just missed out.

Considering we had a few wash out weeks and other challenges the amount of people who consistently played was great.

We would like to thank everyone for their support over the midweek competition and look forward to the next season when it's not too wet to play.

It seems we forgot something last week: to update the scores for the Celebrities! Did anyone notice?

Farmer Joe's Lament was an entertaining read last week. Is there anyone else who would like to write about things football? An invitation is extended to you to submit an article of around 230 words.

Only two of our Locals managed a complete score this week: Good Guess and The Intern, both of whom needed the points as they seem to have been in a race to join Farmer Joe relaxing in the paddock.

Nightwatchman has rejoined The Star at the top of the Leaderboard and the rest of the field more or less remains the same.

Harry is still the top Celebrity but Vu, Georgie and Cody are in striking distance.
