Super Spuds call it quits

The Guyra community has been left shocked and saddened by the news that the Super Spuds have withdrawn from the Group 19 rugby league competition and the club's future is in jeopardy. It is a bitter blow for the committee who had high hopes and huge plans for the club's centenary year.

The decision comes on the back of COVID disruptions over the last two years, with the 2020 season abandoned and the 2021 season cut short. Plans were in place for a big year celebrating 100 years of rugby league in Guyra, however trouble attracting enough players to form a men's and women's side proved to be the stumbling block for the club.

The decision to withdraw was made at a meeting of the club on Tuesday April 5th, due mainly to the lack of numbers turning up for training as well as low committee numbers. The decision was announced by the club on their facebook page (inset).

Group 19 chairman Terry Carson said it is a huge blow to the competition and regional rugby league. Guyra's withdrawal has forced a redraw of the G19 competition which is now back to eight clubs.

Other small clubs are also struggling with numbers and Walcha and Uralla have joined forces to field a team.

Mr Carson said that he hopes Group 19 can help Guyra come back to life, especially with junior league going really well, because there is a need to filter the club's juniors through into to senior league.

Reaction to announcement:

This is heartbreaking. We need rugby league in Guyra. But I totally understand how difficult it has been.

What a shame - a great club & football team over the years. Country Footy is dying- so sad.

How sad. Guyra won't be the same with(sic) the super spuds. The world is changing fast what a shame it's come to this for the town.

Devastating news, fingers crossed the Guyra Super Spuds will rein again. So many fond memories

Thinking of the small group of people who worked hard to support the club, how disappointing that you don't get to see your 100th year

So sad to hear this, a lot of history. It is a very difficult time, drought, floods , bush-fires, plus all of the community is doing tough. Hope that it will come back in 2023.

Tour de Rocks rides in to Guyra Showground

Friday April 8, 2022 saw 250 bike riders, and those supporting the riders, roll into the famous Guyra Showgrounds after completing a gruelling 91 kms from Wollomombi for the day. The Showground became a welcome site and a tent city to house the teams, some 430 participants.

The Guyra Community had it all covered. From the Showgrounds so well maintained by John Credland, to the delicious, sweet treats generously provided by the clever cooks of the CWA Guyra Evening branch and others from the community, the smiling folks and kids serving the evening meal, and wood donated to keep the Guyra chill at bay.

To those on the 230 kms of Armidale Regional Council roads who came across the riders, thank you for your patience.

Tour de Rocks is an annual fund-raising event for cancer awareness, cure and prevention. $100,000 of the money raised goes towards funding two cancer research projects in Sydney.

100th birthday celebration

Black Mountain resident Beryl Dahlenburg this week marked a significant milestone, celebrating her 100th birthday.

Beryl was born at Hornsby Hospital on April 9th, 1922. She remained in Hornsby until her marriage at age 20. Her husband was in the airforce so they moved around for a number of years with his job.

They eventually settled in Temora where they raised their family and remained in the area for the next 50 years. Beryl says that she was a keen gardener and kept busy attending meetings and social occasions.

Asked the secret to her old age she simply said "I was always flat out, doing something and being busy." Beryl enjoys good health for her age and still keeps active attending Nicholli House and associated activities with Guyra Home Support Services and regularly attends church services.

Beryl moved to the Guyra district 11 years ago and lives with her daughter Cheryl at Black Mountain. Sadly her two sons predeceased her.

This week has been extra

Beryl Dahlenburg with some of the many well wishes she has received busy with multiple celebrations to mark her 100th birthday. While she was honoured to receive congratulations from the Queen and other dignitaries, well wishes from friends and family have also been coming in thick and fast.

"Every five minutes there has been someone else calling and it has been very overwhelming," Beryl said. "It has been amazing."

RSL NSW Membership is now Free and Online

There should be no barrier for any current serving member, veteran, or family member of the Australian Defence Force (ADF) to join RSL NSW. That's why RSL NSW have made membership fee-free. Making membership of RSL NSW free means that there is no requirement for members and affiliate members to pay annual subscriptions.

Guyra sub-Branch President, Hans Hietbrink, says that there are many ex-service men and women and family members of ex-service men and women in the Guyra region who could join the local sub-branch.

"I encourage eligible members of our community to become involved as members of the Guyra sub-Branch and help make a contribution to the welfare and memory of veterans," he said.

Previously, the process for joining the League has been paper-based. Now prospective members can join online from the RSL NSW website.

Together with making memberships free, RSL NSW believes this change will make it easier than ever for members of the ADF and veteran community to come on-board, connect with their local sub-Branch and participate in the largest member-based veterans' charity in Australia.

RSL NSW is not just for members and veterans of the ADF or Armed Forces. There are options for partners and families to join sub-Branches as Affiliate Members so they can support other members who are on the road to recovery from mental or physical health issues, need help with Department of Veteran Affairs claims, employment support, or just need a good mate to lean on.

Staff farewelled at Guyra Central

Guyra Central School farewelled two staff members at the end of term one. Deputy Principal Tim Lloyd has been appointed, through merit selection process, as the new Principal at Gilgandra High School.

Principal Michelle Nicholson said that Mr Lloyd has dedicated himself to the students, families and staff during his time at our school.

"We tell our students regularly that if you hold high expectations for yourself and others that success will follow," she said. "Mr Lloyd models this theory on a daily basis, and he has been rewarded for his efforts."

"I am not sure if the students and families in Gilgandra High School realise just how lucky they are to be getting such a wonderful leader at their school. We thank you and wish you well Tim, thank you for your generosity during your time with us."

In a farewell message to the school Mr Lloyd said

"Thank you to all of you for making me feel so welcome here at the school. I have really enjoyed working with the students and families at the school and wanted to extend my thanks and appreciation for the opportunity to work with your kids.

"I also wanted to thank my colleagues at GCS for all of their support and friendship during my time at the school. I will certainly miss all of you. Thanks, and goodbye."

Deborah Boileau Little is taking leave during Term 2 and will transition and make decisions on the next chapter of her life. Mrs Nicholson said that Deborah has provided wonderful support to staff, students and their families over a long time and her presence will be missed greatly within the school.

Regional stages are coming alive

The performing arts are coming alive again after two years in COVID dormancy, and the New England North West is about to feel that creative wave.

Arts North West On Tour, along with its community network partners, has launched an exciting schedule of shows for stages across the region.

"Frankly, it feels like a relief to bring live entertainment back to our regional stages," Arts North West executive director Caroline Downer said.

"There's a really diverse schedule for 2022 coming up, with poignant dramatic performances, comedy, dance, and some great programs for kids. We're pretty excited to help bring these shows to the New England North West."

It starts this April with Stardust + The Mission, a moving two-part performance by ABC presenter and performer Joel Carnegie and award winning Gunditjmara man Tom Molyneux, taking stages in Quirindi, Narrabri, Inverell, Gunnedah and Tamworth. May brings the anticipated show, Beep, to Quirindi, Gunnedah, and Bingara.

Arts North West's annual Pocket Production is The Soul Express: Laura Zarb. This debut cabaret show sold out the 2019 Sydney Fringe, and

Arts North West's annual Pocket Production
The Soul Express: Laura Zarb will be in Guyra in May will come to halls and stages in Wallabadah, Breeza, Emerald, Boggabri, Croppa Creek, and Guyra this May.

Laura serenades her audiences with her unique blend of wit, neuroses, and charm to address the pressures of perfection, anxiety, and life in our modern, technologically-fuelled world through original tales and tunes.

There's more to come, with a packed ANWOT calendar including the regional favourite - Melbourne Comedy Festival Roadshow, 100 Years of the History of Dance, This is Eden, The Owl's Apprentice, The Box Show, and Men Like Us, from the wildly popular team behind Women Like Us.

What is Easter all about?

Often the week of Easter flies past without many of us giving it much thought. Apart from maybe happily enjoying all the chocolate that seems to magically appear! But to give you a refresher, this is what Easter is all about.

Jesus, the Son of God, comes into the world. He preaches a message of salvation to the world, for which he is arrested and then killed. Though, this was all part of a much bigger story. Because as Jesus breathed his last breath, everything was going to plan. Because with that final breath, he was paying the price for the sin of the world.

This meant that anyone could be forgiven and welcomed into God's heavenly kingdom, no matter what lay in their past. However, the story didn't stop there! Because only two days later, some women arrived at His tomb to find an angel proclaiming that Jesus was alive!

Now, I take a lot of funerals, so I know more than most that dead men don't come back to life. Though, on that Easter morning, death could not keep Jesus down.

On the cross, Jesus dealt with our sin. In His resurrection, Jesus shows us that he has defeated death and that resurrected life is on offer to anyone who trusts in him.

And this is what Easter is all about. Jesus came, he died for imperfect people like you and me, and then he defeated the one enemy that we all have to face, death. This Easter, He invites all of us to trust Him afresh so that we receive the life He died to give us. We'd love to see you at St James' Anglican Church at 9 am on Good Friday or Easter Sunday if you'd like to know more.

Rev. Tim Stevens
St James Anglican Church

'What's amazing about grace? ...

A woman told a friend her sordid story. She was a prostitute, homeless, sick, and with a drug habit. And she was renting out her daughter, a child, to men interested in kinky sex. The friend was horrified, and asked if she ever thought of going to a church for help. The woman responded, in shock, 'Church!' she cried. 'Why would I ever go there? I was already feeling terrible about myself. They'd just make me feel worse.'

But in the Bible, women like that ran to Jesus and not away from Him. The worse a person felt about herself, the more likely she found acceptance in Jesus. In fact the down and out and the rejects of society, the criminals and the losers, gathered around Jesus, and listened to him gladly. And the good religious people of the day loathed Jesus. It was they, not the riff raff of society, that crucified Him.

For that is, you see what Jesus came to be and do. To be a doctor,

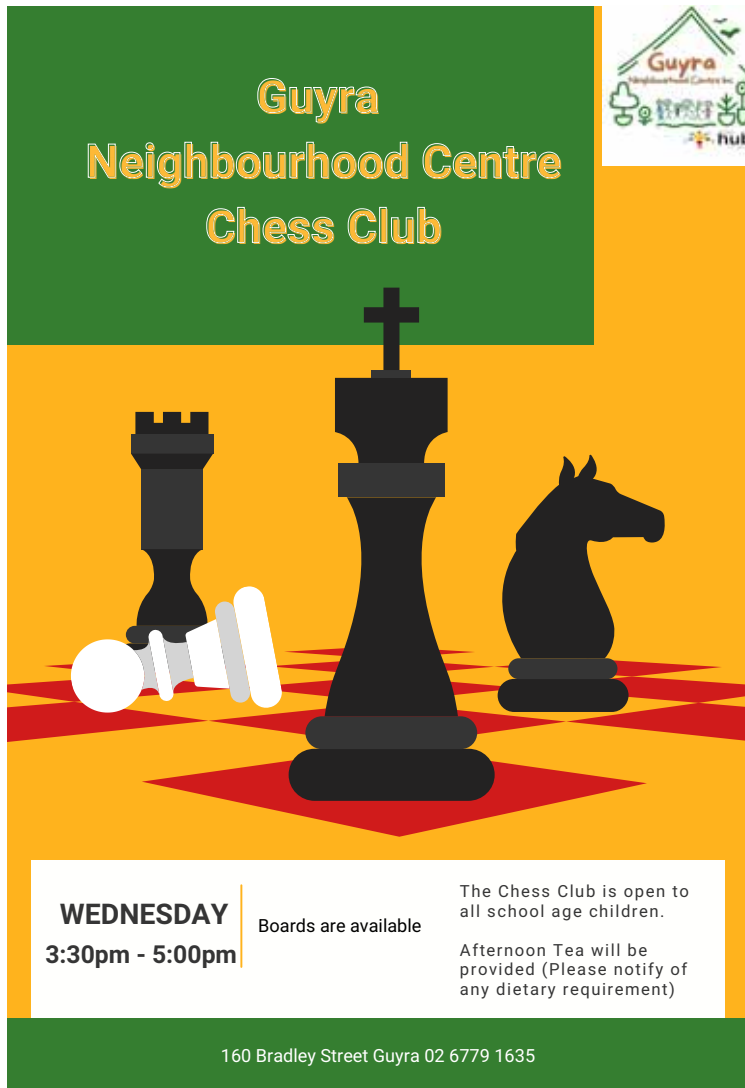

He said, not for the people who think they've got it together and look down on those who don't reach their standards. Jesus said He came for those who recognize their need for forgiveness, and come to Him, just as they are. You'll find that in Luke, chapter five, verses thirty-one and thirty two.

And that's what Easter is all about. About Jesus who died on a cross so that sinful people like you and me could be forgiven, with our sins laid on Jesus.

And He makes us right with God by His grace, and ready for heaven, a heaven He won by His glorious resurrection.

Find a church, this Easter, where that message is proclaimed, and find a church which is, as Christian churches should be, not clubs for people who have got it together, but hospitals for sinners like you and me. That's God's Amazing Grace!

MARSHALL CAUTIOUSLY WELCOMES CREATION OF DIVISION OF REGIONAL HEALTH

Northern Tablelands MP Adam Marshall has welcomed the state government's announcement of the establishment of a new Division of Regional Health within NSW Health, but cautioned for the division to succeed it must have equal powers at the decision making table.

In a recent Notice of Motion to the NSW Parliament, Mr Marshall called for the establishment of a stand-alone Department of Regional Health.

Mr Marshall said if the new Regional Health Division is to work it must be given the same resources and weighting afforded to the existing city centric health bureaucracy.

"While this could be a significant step towards improving health services for remote and regional NSW, we don't just want token gestures," Mr Marshall said.

"In principle, I fully support what the division is setting out to achieve, which is bringing a renewed focus on recruitment to key healthcare roles in regional NSW and to find innovative ways to support nurses, doctors, allied health practitioners.

"However, I do have some reservations about the added levels of bureaucracy which will be created and what ability the regional division will have to redirect resources away from powerful decision makers within NSW Health," he said.

Minister for Regional Health, Bronnie Taylor, announced the establishment of the Regional Health Division for NSW Health on Friday.

Guyra Anglers Club

Guyra Anglers held their first meeting at their new home base - the Guyra Bowling & Recreation Club - last Wednesday with our biggest non-AGM turn out in recent history – thanks members, this was a truly great vote of confidence in the future of our Club. The welcome from the Bowlo was warm and we look forward to working with them closely, especially in completing the installation of the 10th Dam Aerator. This project is going to provide a fantastic visual feast, a positive environmental impact, for our dam and community, whilst continuing the provision of a healthy activity for young and old. Please note that when you access 10th dam it is important to not drive or park in front of the Veterans Golf Shed or on any part of the Golf Course, please park on the Northern end of the shed, or in the carpark just a short walk away. Please also remember to remove all rubbish, release fish back in a quick and timely manner, or if a fish dies, please remove the carcass from the site.

Our next meeting will be held at 6pm on Saturday May 7th, following this meeting we will hold our first raffles at our new base – starting at around 7pm. As is our tradition, we have incredible prizes from our valued local business supporters Khammo, Dasha's Hardware, and Campbell's Butchery. With a Portable BBQ from Dasha's, $500 (10x$50) Campbell's Butchery Meat Tray Vouchers, and plenty more prizes yet to come, it will certainly be worth bringing the family, having a catch-up, and trying your luck in the raffles.

Ladies' Golf

Last week a few of the ladies played in Armidale as our course is too wet.

Wendy George won the day with 38 Stableford Points.

This week is a Stableford.

If the course is playable next week, it is a Par Medal with Wendy Jackson as the starter and sponsor.
